Warsaw Sporter™

Offered for Mauser 98 rifles, this attractive walnut stock has 18 lines per inch checkering, a durable semi-satin finish, elegant lines, a trim sporter forend, swivel studs and an ambidextrous design. Except for rasping a notch for the bolt handle, the Warsaw Sporter is 100% drop-in. The barrel channel is machined for the Adams & Bennett F34 barrel contour. Military Mausers with stepped barrels can be installed once the rear sight band is removed with only minor fitting, however some gaps will be evident.

Ace Varminter™

The Ace Varminter is the premier varmint stock, combining useful features with sleek, high-tech design. It sports a high Monte Carlo comb with cheekpiece, a pistol grip with double palm swells and functional cooling vents. A free-floating barrel channel enhances accuracy, while the laminated birch construction ensures stability. The Ace Varminter is available finished and unfinished for the Mauser 98, and finished only for the Remington Model 700® short action rifles, in Coffee™ and Midnight™. The barrel channel for the Mauser is designed for the Adams & Bennett F54 barrel. Remington M700 models are designed to fit factory varmint barrels, Adams & Bennett F54 Replacement Barrels, or the heavy contour barrels offered by custom barrel makers. Remington 700 models feature aluminum pillars. These accuracy-enhancers free your barreled action from small changes in wood due to changes in humidity. The accuracy of a synthetic with the feel of wood!

Walking Varminter™

The Walking Varminter is the perfect balance of features found on both traditional hunting rifle stocks and typical varmint stocks. It is the varmint stock designed for the rifle that is meant to be carried. It features a high Monte Carlo comb and cheek piece, which is ideal for shooting prone or from a bipod, combined with a narrower, trimmer forend to make it lighter and easier to carry. Offered for Mauser 98 rifles, finished only, in Coffee™ and Midnight™, with an F54 barrel channel.
